

SUNDAY 21 JUNE	TIME	WORKSHOP ONE – Kent/Devon Rooms
		JOHN GLEESON
	9:00 - 5:00 (Lunch, Morning and Afternoon Tea provided)	Individual and family based relapse prevention after first episode of psychosis An overview and orientation to a relapse prevention programme developed at EPPIC (Early Psychosis Prevention and Intervention Centre) in Melbourne, with the opportunity to explore how specific techniques and interventions can be integrated into local service models
	TIME	WORKSHOP TWO – Avon/Sussex Rooms
		WARRICK BREWER
	9:00 – 1:00 (Morning Tea provided)	Something is not quite right! Making sense of emerging mental illness: a cognitive-emotional model for engaging and treating early psychosis with a focus on complex and aggressive clients who are also at high risk for suicide

MONDAY 22 JUNE

TIME	SESSION
8:30	REGISTRATION
9:00	Powhiri
10:00	Opening	Hon Tariana Turia, Associate Minister of Health
10:30	TEA BREAK
11:00	Keynote 1 Kent/Devon Rooms	John Gleeson Episode II: understanding and preventing relapse after first episode psychosis
12:00	Keynote 2 Kent/Devon Rooms	Traceyanne Herewini “Ko te amorangi o ki mua, ko te hapai ki muri” From chaos and confusion to navigating one’s pathway to hope and learning
12:45	LUNCH
1:30	Keynote 3 Kent/Devon Rooms	Judge Peter Boshier Early mental health intervention with young people: is the Mental Health Act a help or a hindrance?
2:15	FREE PAPERS

	Stream 1 Work and Study – Kent/Devon Rooms ----- Eóin Killackey Results of a randomised controlled trial of individual placement and support for vocational rehabilitation in first episode psychosis -----. Nikki Porteous and Liam McGarvey WorkFirst at the Early Intervention Service - implementation and a consumer perspective	Stream 2 Engagement – Avon/Sussex Rooms ----- Angela Person Effective engagement with Maori clients: perspectives from a kaupapa Maori mental health community team ----- Sera Robinson and Pamela Wainwright Creative engagement
--	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

MONDAY 22 JUNE

TIME	SESSION
3:15	TEA BREAK
3:30	FREE PAPERS
	<table border="1"><thead><tr><th>Stream 1</th><th>Work and Study – Kent/Devon Rooms</th><th>Stream 2</th><th>Brain and Behaviour - Avon/Sussex Rooms</th></tr></thead><tbody><tr><td>-----</td><td></td><td>-----</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>Deborah J Browne</td><td></td><td>Dr Tina Proffitt</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>Employment services in early intervention for young people with mental illness in New Zealand</td><td></td><td>The ORYGEN Clinical Neuropsychology Unit: identifying and managing cognitive dysfunction in youth experiencing early psychosis</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>-----</td><td></td><td>-----</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>Lisa Thompson and Vicky Griffin</td><td></td><td>Dr Mike Ang</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>Central Regional Health School - City: supporting school transition</td><td></td><td>The causes of schizophrenia: the striatum and the street</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>-----</td><td></td><td>-----</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>Alan Watters</td><td></td><td>Danika Treavish</td><td></td></tr><tr><td>The use of art-making and the recovery of young people experiencing psychosis</td><td></td><td>Reflections and ethical dilemmas inherent in early intervention</td><td></td></tr></tbody></table>	Stream 1	Work and Study – Kent/Devon Rooms	Stream 2	Brain and Behaviour - Avon/Sussex Rooms	-----		-----		Deborah J Browne		Dr Tina Proffitt		Employment services in early intervention for young people with mental illness in New Zealand		The ORYGEN Clinical Neuropsychology Unit: identifying and managing cognitive dysfunction in youth experiencing early psychosis		-----		-----		Lisa Thompson and Vicky Griffin		Dr Mike Ang		Central Regional Health School - City: supporting school transition		The causes of schizophrenia: the striatum and the street		-----		-----		Alan Watters		Danika Treavish		The use of art-making and the recovery of young people experiencing psychosis		Reflections and ethical dilemmas inherent in early intervention
Stream 1	Work and Study – Kent/Devon Rooms	Stream 2	Brain and Behaviour - Avon/Sussex Rooms
-----		-----
Deborah J Browne		Dr Tina Proffitt
Employment services in early intervention for young people with mental illness in New Zealand		The ORYGEN Clinical Neuropsychology Unit: identifying and managing cognitive dysfunction in youth experiencing early psychosis
-----		-----
Lisa Thompson and Vicky Griffin		Dr Mike Ang
Central Regional Health School - City: supporting school transition		The causes of schizophrenia: the striatum and the street
-----		-----
Alan Watters		Danika Treavish
The use of art-making and the recovery of young people experiencing psychosis		Reflections and ethical dilemmas inherent in early intervention

	5:00	New Zealand launch of the international vocational statement - Avon/Sussex Rooms Meaningful Lives EIP Executive Committee , Dr Eóin Killackey, Nikki Porteous and the WorkFirst Team
	5:30	AGM - Avon/Sussex Rooms
	6:00	COCKTAIL PARTY - Kent/Devon Rooms

TUESDAY 23 JUNE

TIME	SESSION
9:00	Keynote 4 Kent/Devon Rooms	Warrick Brewer Engaging and managing high risk clients with first episode psychosis: treatment model and outcomes relative to EPPIC treatment as usual
10:00	Keynote 5 Kent/Devon Rooms	James Tait Bridging the gap to assist in avoiding the revolving door
10:45	TEA BREAK
11:15	FREE PAPERS/FORUMS
11:15	Stream 1 Forums - Everyone welcome! Kent/Devon Rooms ----- Ask the experts! A panel of consumers ready to answer all your burning questions about the consumer experience and what has worked for them Chair: Bridget Greaney	Stream 2 Checks and balances Avon/Sussex Rooms ----- Mark Turner and Dr Cecilia Smith-Hamel First Episode Research New Zealand (FERNZ) national dataset ----- Dr Cecilia Smith-Hamel Setting up an early intervention service within an existing community mental health team

	12.15	If I knew then what I know now... Families talk of their experience of Early Intervention Services Chair: Megan Owens and Richard Tither	Christine Rigby Mind Matters Trust: an alternative to hospital for youth and young adults ----- Paula Henley-Cragg Training front line professionals to assess the emotional needs and signs of mental health difficulties in children and adolescents
--	-------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

TUESDAY 23 JUNE	TIME	SESSION
	1:15	LUNCH
	2:00	Keynote 6	Margaret Ross Engaging challenging adolescents
	3:00	TEA BREAK
	3:15	DISCIPLINE MEETINGS
	4:15	FREE PAPERS
		Stream 1 - Kent/Devon Rooms	Stream 2 - Avon/Sussex Rooms

Blair Bishop

Kate O'Donovan and Denise Buchanan

		Sex, Drugs & Rock'n'Roll	Group work with women who experience psychosis
	4:45	CLOSE

