

Acute and Crisis

An acute and crisis continuum consisting of the right mix of services for the population and providing settings most appropriate to people's needs

Increase in range of flexible community based options for acute support

Increase in responsiveness & timeliness for consumers requiring urgent/crisis services

Improved information about services available and expectations for the public

Improved satisfaction indicators for consumers using acute/crisis services and improved staff satisfaction

Acute and Crisis

An acute and crisis continuum consisting of the right mix of services for the population and providing settings most appropriate to people's needs

