WRITING

An illustration featuring two hands, drawn in a simple, sketchy style, holding a large, colorful, abstract shape. The shape is filled with various colors like red, yellow, blue, and green, and has a textured, splattered appearance. The hands are positioned on either side of the shape, with fingers slightly curled as if holding it. The background is a solid, light brown color. The text is written in a simple, black, sans-serif font, centered within the colorful shape.
