

Knowing, growing and engaging our workforce to make sure people get the right care at the right time in the right place.

Nurses & Midwives

- We are
- » working in partnership with people, respecting their dignity and rights, caring about them and for them
  - » working together with our colleagues across services to ensure quality care that makes a difference
  - » a professional community that's committed to growing in effectiveness and resilience