

NURSING & MIDWIFERY ICT PRIORITIES 2020 - 2025

Government Goals

All New Zealanders live well, stay well, get well

Quadruple Aim Outcomes

NZ Health Strategy

People Powered
Health smart, engaged people, a responsive system meeting high-need priority populations

Closer to Home
Right services in right location using pathways & technology, collaborating with other agencies

Value & High Performance
Monitoring framework to increase equity of health outcomes, quality & value

One Team
Improve integration outcomes by focusing on workforce development, capability, diversity, innovation, talent management

Smart System
Electronic health records via patient/provider portals & apps

CCDHB Indicators

Community Health Networks
Working with communities for locality approaches

Value & High Performance
Effective use of resources to organise health services around settings of care

One Team
Interdisciplinary health teams working together

Smart System
Innovation, using technologies to improve choice & access

Nursing & Midwifery Goals

Improving Patient Experience:

- Consumer focused improvement
- Health literacy
- Equity of healthcare provision & outcomes
- Care closer to home
- Best experience of care

Population Health:

- Improve health & equity for Māori, Pacific and harder to reach populations
- Invest in supporting healthy communities
- Focus on prenatal, maternal, child, youth, older adults and mental health wellbeing

Best Value for Money
3D efficiencies through collaboration on developments

- Smart workforce systems
- Optimal skill mix
- Safe services
- Best care outcomes
- Technological developments
- People powered

Workforce Leadership

- Known status of workforce
- Grown workforce capability
- Workforce engaged in future development
- Develop leadership capability

Nursing & Midwifery Leadership (NAML) Goals

- Health Care Home supported by appropriate technology to improve health equity. Telehealth triaging and assessment
- Focus on population health literacy re Maori/Pacific
- Strengthen integration links between HHS/Community health providers/General Practice teams/other agencies - Advance Care Plans & Interai viewable by Primary/ARC and HHS
- Automate audits for nursing/midwifery safe quality care using Nerve Center
- Applications developed/sourced for use on tablets for Buckeye, Clinical Results/Progress notes, ePrescribing/administration, Discharge summaries, e-referrals, Smartpage, TrendCare, CCDM

- National Immunisation Register (NIR) is used for staff and patient immunisation record (HHS)
- MEPO – Nerve Center is used for nursing assessments and care planning
- Outpatient/ambulatory scheduling, referrals are managed in an appropriate ICT system, patients able to seek own clinic appointments and method ie telehealth

- Care Capacity Demand Management (CCDM) implemented
- Support use of smart systems - mobility ICT/patient Apps/electronic record keeping (Messaging to cell phones for radiology appointments, theatre pick up/drop off, medications due)

- Digital Framework developed to inform education
- HHS - using IT enablers such as iPads, smart phones
- Primary/ARC/HHS career paths with required learning is accessible online (Connect Me)
- E-PDRP developed DHB wide
- Professional Development records are online (Connect Me) for all sectors
- Library databases are available for Primary/ARC
- Apps identified by staff are considered by NMEAC